

I have only reviewed a small portion of the nearly 4000 comments on file concerning BPL, but it is quite clear this proposal seriously violates the concept of no harmful interference to existing services.

I ask the Commission to reject BPL in particular, and consider lowering the allowed emission levels of PLC devices in general.

Thank you.